

SHAMANIC CONSULTATION WITH NEIL MCKINLAY

A List of Services and Fees

Neil draws from a wide range of shamanic practices in helping us engage our lives in a deeper way. The practices employed in a specific session are determined by the particular needs of the client at that time. The list below summarizes those practices most commonly used in this work; it offers only a partial overview.

- Guidance and Divination - Helps us identify the direction life wishes to take, while revealing and addressing possible obstacles to this.
- Soul Retrieval - A means of rediscovering and, over time, integrating aspects of ourselves that have been forced outside ordinary awareness.
- Healing - Uses life energy to restore well-being in areas where this has been compromised.
- Cleansing and Extraction - Removes obstructing patterns and attachments from our being.
- Initiation - Opens us to and contextualizes us within a broader, more encompassing state of being.
- Grounding and Embodiment - Connects us with the body and with the elements of which life is created.

A typical consultation consists of three parts: information gathering, shamanic exploration, and follow up discussion/healing. Initial sessions run two to three hours in length as the amount of information gathering required is often considerable. Subsequent consultations are shorter, lasting between one and two hours. Many clients find an initial consultation with periodic updates beneficial for their ongoing journey. Others find a single session to be a suitable resource. Personal day-long intensives offer a third means of working with Neil in a shamanic context.

The cost for each of these options runs on a sliding scale of $65-$95 per hour (applicable taxes included). Once a session is complete, the total time spent doing the work is multiplied by the amount on the scale that feels most appropriate. The resulting tally provides a session's complete fee.

Note: Prices are subject to change without notice.

Out of town clients are responsible for travel fees.
